why aquadi?

Aquadi bathrooms are brought to you by Symphony, the UK's largest privately owned fitted furniture supplier. We source the finest materials and combine them with efficient design to meet the needs of contemporary lifestyles.

With over 40 years' experience, we are constantly investing in ways to improve our products and service. We were the first company in our industry to gain the quality assurance accreditation BS 9002 Part 2, and subsequently ISO 14001:2004 – independently endorsing our activities to limit their impact on the environment.

We are proud of the Symphony culture of being green; it is embedded in all our business practices from the materials we source to the delivery of them to you. The Symphony fleet of vehicles is one of the most fuel efficient on Britain's roads, utilising the latest technology converting nitrogen oxides into harmless nitrogen and water.

One Planet Products® are an award-winning, not-for-profit social business and Aquadi bathrooms are working towards One Planet Products® status. One Planet Products® helps its members to purchase and specify green construction products and services easily and affordably whilst helping us drive forward our sustainability aspirations. Symphony is also a member of the KBSA (The Kitchen Bathroom Bedroom Specialists Association), demonstrating the strong market position of our business and our commitment to unrivalled customer service.

Even our site is impressive, with the design and construction of our 500,000 sq. ft state-of-the-art manufacturing and Head Office facilities at Barnsley, South Yorkshire, incorporating BREEAM standards, the leading and most widely used environmental assessment method for buildings.

We are also self-sufficiently powered by wood waste from a 500m³ storage silo and the installation of a 2 megawatt wind turbine is now planned to supplement this further.

planning guide

getting started

To begin with take an accurate measurement of your bathroom. Check the height from the floor to window sill to make sure that base units will fit underneath the window.

Check the dimensions and positions of windows, doors and any other obstructions, e.g. radiators, towel rails, soil and vent pipes and light switches, as these will determine the layout of your bathroom.

Transfer your room dimensions on to graph paper so that you can produce a scale drawing (use 1:10 or 1:20 scale). Mark the position of any waste pipes, soil pipes and incoming water supplies. The location of plumbing affects everything else, so this must be highlighted at the start. Remember though that the beauty of fully fitted bathroom furniture is that your bathroom can be designed to completely conceal unsightly pipework.

Top Tip

If you are using wall units, try to get them to co-ordinate in size with your base units as this will be pleasing to the eye.

Top Tip

Always remember to allow for filler panels between a unit and a wall. This prevents the unit door handle clashing against the wall and makes certain that the run of furniture will fit into your chosen space (see image far right).

The next step is to list all the items you would like to have in your bathroom: shower, bath, hand basin, W/C, bidet, furniture pieces and storage units, mirror, towel rail, etc. Obtain measurements of all these items and then add them to your plan. Full dimensions for all Aquadi bathroom furniture can be found in the Aquadi Price Guide.

Once you have positioned your furniture on the plan you will be able to take final measurements of the runs of furniture and work out what size of countertop you will need.

Finally you can think about accessories. One of the most important things to consider is lighting. Aquadi offers a number of bathroom lighting options which are all IP regulated. You could choose LED Chrome Spotlights set into a flyover shelf, or flexible LED strip lighting underneath wall units. The illuminated mirrors are a 'must have' for any contemporary bathroom.

The bathroom can often be one of the smallest rooms in the house, so if space is an issue or you are planning a cloakroom you may like to consider reduced depth bathroom furniture.

Aquadi offers a wide selection of base units with a depth of only 200mm across all ranges. You may also like to consider the 500mm Basin Module, a compact storage and basin solution which is perfect for smaller spaces. Please refer to the Aquadi Price Guide for details. To save space and de-clutter you could also consider recessing a unit into the wall as shown right.

simple steps to select your furniture

Now that you have seen the style and choice that Aquadi has to offer and you have thought about the planning of your bathroom, simply follow the steps below to order your bathroom via your retailer.

1. Select your range; Lindo, Venetian or Ravello®.
2. Select style/colour.
3. Select your units and cabinet colour. Remember to state the handing of your units (if applicable).
4. Choose your handles.
5. Decide on your countertop.
6. Pick your accessories.
